All recipients of the Margaret Seibold award are required to bring back to their County the information learned at the state conference.

After the conference recipients are to send a written report to the State President and State Treasurer within 30 days of the conference stating what they learned from the conference and how they will use the information for the betterment of Oregon FCE membership.

At the request of the state President you may be asked to present an oral or written report at the State Conference or conduct a lesson or workshop.

The following suggestions should help you with your report:

- Tell what classes you attended and evaluate their value to Oregon FCE
- Tell what other activities you attended, and evaluate their value to you and Oregon FCE members
- Make suggestions to the Board for possible programs or activities that may benefit the members at future Annual State Conferences.

Please send a copy of the completed evaluation to the State President and the State Treasurer within 30 days from end of conference
